

Financial Services Guide

Version 4.0 Date: 16 December 2021

Financial Services Guide

The Financial Services Guide (FSG) is designed to clarify who we are and what we do, and to help you decide whether to use our services.

To make things simple, this guide explains:

- the services and types of products we're able to offer you;
- how we and our associates are paid and – any other benefits we may receive;
- any potential conflicts of interest we may have;
- how we protect your privacy and handle your personal information; and
- how we resolve disputes, and what you should do if you have one.

Please read through the whole FSG, as it's full of useful information – and is also worth holding on to for future reference. The Privacy Notification at the end of this document is worthwhile reading as it gives you further clarity on how we handle your personal information. And of course, if you ever have any questions, please contact us.

We collectively refer to the Licensee and its Authorised representatives as 'us', 'our', 'we' throughout this FSG

Lack of Independence

Australian Adviser Group Pty Ltd are neither 'independent', 'impartial' or 'unbiased, as defined by S923A of the Corporations Act because we:

1. receive commissions for the advice we provide on life risk insurance products;
2. We have the related entity of:
 - AAG Capital Pty Ltd ABN: 55 626 952 627 - - Australian Adviser Group manage the AAG SMA Portfolio Series which may influence our advice to you. Further details can be found in the fee and related services sections of the FSG

Documents you may receive

In addition to this FSG, if we provide you with financial advice, we will also present you with a written Statement of Advice (SOA). This will describe:

- advice and strategies we recommend and the reasons why;
- the financial products and services we recommend and the reasons why;
- any fees or commissions we will receive; and
- any associations we have with financial product providers or other parties that may influence the advice we provide.

After that, any time you receive further financial advice from us, we will either provide you with another SOA or give you (or keep our own) written Record of Advice (ROA). You can request a copy of this by contacting us any time up to seven years from the date of the advice provided.

To help you make an informed decision about a financial product you generally will be given a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which outlines the product features, benefits and risks and costs in detail. In certain circumstances it is not a requirement that you be given a PDS (including, for example, where you already have one).

Other Documents

If you enter into an Ongoing Service Agreement with your adviser for a period greater than 12 months, a Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) will be issued to you. The FDS will contain information about the services you were entitled to, the services you have received and the fees you paid during the previous year. The FDS also includes information about the fees to be charged and services to be provided for the coming year and seeks your consent to renew our ongoing services.

If we charge our advice fees from either a superannuation or an investment account, we will also seek your consent to deduct fees from that account.
